

Doris Russi Schurter

Position

Member of the Board of Directors

since

06/2016

Curriculum vitae

Doris Russi Schurter has been a Member of the Swiss International Air Lines Ltd. Board of Directors since June 2016.

After graduating in law, Russi Schurter went on to earn her qualification as a licensed attorney. After completing her further training with a Swiss bank, in a New York law firm, at Georgetown University in Washington D.C. and at Boston's Harvard Business School, she joined the KPMG accountancy group. Here she served as legal counsel and a partner in various executive positions in Basel and Lucerne, including eleven years as Head of KPMG Lucerne from 1994 to 2005.

Doris Russi Schurter has been serving on the boards of foundations and board of directors of a number of major corporations since 2005. She further serves as President of the VSUD, the association of Swiss companies in Germany.

Doris Russi Schurter, who was born in 1956, is married.